

Please note that the determination of a health profession trainee's (HPT) ability to deliver care to Veterans is based on documented evaluation of the HPT's clinical experience, judgment, knowledge, and skills. The clinical supervisor(s) must provide the type of supervision commensurate with the HPT's assigned Graduated Level of Responsibility (GLR). The guidance below is based on the presence of these supervisory requirements.

